

Use the < > symbols to compare numbers. Take 2 handfuls of Lego and compare the amounts! Choose a challenge to complete, if you find it tricky start with the mild then you could try a spicy question after.

Mild

1 a) Who has more ? Eve or Kasim?

How do you know?

b) Who has more ? Joe or Kasim?

>

Spicy

Teddy and Eva each have some muffins.
Who has more muffins?
Which picture helps you to compare?

Teddy

Eva

___ is more than ___

___ > ___

_____ has more muffins.

Teddy

Eva

Fill in the blanks:

Is less than

Is more than

Teddy and Eva each have some muffins.
Who has more muffins?
Which picture helps you to compare?

___ is more than ___
___ > ___
_____ has more muffins.

Fill in the blanks:

Is less than
 <

Is more than
 >

Complete each box using <, > or =
Say and write the number sentences for each one.

2 tens and 8 ones		3 tens and 6 ones