The Day the Crayons Quit – Comprehension

Listen to the story. <https://youtu.be/cSksqXBKVIg> you can also read the crayon's letters from the slides on the Home learning page.

Write the answers in your writing book if you do not want to print this page.

Remember to use correct punctuation

1. How has Duncan used this crayon in the past?

2. How does this make the crayon feel?

3. What does this crayon want to persuade Duncan to do?

4. Are there any words the crayon uses in the letter that might get Duncan to behave differently?

5. Can you spot any other ways that this crayon uses to try and persuade Duncan, e.g. anything about the way that the text is written or laid out?
