

How to sow seeds

Cut out the sentences below. Stick them into your topic book in the correct order. Draw a picture of the seeds being planted.

First put some compost into your container.

Next make a dent in the soil and place your seeds inside.

Then cover the seeds with a fine layer of compost.

Using a fine spray on the end of the watering can moisten the compost.

Place the tray on a warm windowsill for the seeds to germinate.