

English-Castles

Today we would like you to think of things you already know about castles and write these down in your English book. Then think of 2 or 3 questions you would like to know e.g Are all castles made from stone? Remember to use your question marks at the end.