

Name _____

Number bonds

A farmer wants to put 100 sheep in his field. He has found 22 sheep how many more does he need to find?	My sister is 10 years old today. Mum only has 2 candles for her cake. How many more does she need to buy?
There are 66 apples on the tree and 34 lying on the ground. How many apples are there altogether?	I have 20 buttons on my coat. I have done 8 up. How many more do I need to do up?
I have bought 77 tickets for a show, but 3 more friends want to come. How many tickets do I need altogether?	I have 13 t-shirts in my case, but I am on holiday for 20 days. How many more t-shirts do I need to pack?
There are 69 sweets in the bag. How many more sweets do I need to make 100?	There is room for 40 pens in my pen case. I put 11 pens in. How many more pens can I put in my case?

Can you write any more word problems about number bonds to either 10, 20 or 100?