

English- Castles

After your investigation yesterday today we would like you to imagine you are someone who lives or works at the castle. You could draw a picture of what you would look like and write a timetable of your day, or create a diary entry about what your life is like, if you're feeling very creative you could a little act of you in character and what you are doing and video it. Have fun!!!