

You can draw arrays, write a repeated addition or a multiplication calculation.

A farmer plants 4 rows of trees. Each row has 6 trees in it. How many trees are there altogether?	There are 3 shelves in a cake shop. Each shelf has 10 cakes. What is the total number of cakes in the shop?
There are 5 lines of children on a school playground. Each line has 9 children in it. How many children are on the playground?	A brick layer builds a wall of bricks that is 10 bricks high and 9 bricks long. How many bricks are there in the wall?
Mrs Penny has 16 sweets. She lays them out into an array. Can you draw an array that she made?	Year Two planted 4 rows of potatoes. There were 2 potatoes in each row. How many potatoes did they plant?

