

Tuesday 2nd June 2020

Today we would like you to do some reading and answer some questions about what you've read.

There are three different texts to choose from, all about pythons. Choose the one that is the right reading level for you.

The questions and answers are also included in the document. You can use the answer sheet to mark your own work after you have finished.

You will need to open up the separate PDF document.

It looks like this:
