

Summer

English Task 2

Our new topic is going to be about India.

We would like you to collect facts about India. This might include; its capital city, what language they speak, what the weather is like, animals found in India or foods they eat.

You can present your facts anyway you would like. You might write a factfile, create a poster or even pretend you are visiting India on holiday and write a diary entry.