PLEASE EMAIL THIS LEARNING TO YOUR CLASS TEACHER.

Today you are going to write your own version of 'The Slightly Annoying Elephant'.

You are going to concentrate on writing the ending of your story.

Remember to use accurate punctuation, lots of interesting adjectives to build a picture in your reader's mind and join your letters neatly if you can.

Re-read each sentence to make sure it makes good sense.

Once you have finished, illustrate your story and then email the whole story to your class teacher.
