Write a short paragraph or a few sentences in your English book about the weather in England and the weather in India. Our buzz words this week are with, because and time see if you can use them in your writing. When you've finished draw a picture of yourself in the two different types of weather, you could split your page in half using a ruler. Ask a grown up to help you find out about the weather in India, you could use this website to help you <https://weather-averages.co.uk/compare-climate/new-delhi%2C-india/london%2C-uk>
