

English - India

This half term we have been learning about India. What can you remember so far? Can you use the internet and non-fiction (information) books to make a poster about India? You could use this poster template below to set out your work. Remember to include a heading, sub heading, fact box and a picture with caption. I have made my own poster on the next page as an example.

India

These people have drawn Mehndi patterns on their hands and feet.

Rangoli

In India people make colourful Rangoli designs on the floor using coloured rice powder. Another form of Rangoli pattern is Mehndi which is used to decorate hands and feet during festivals and weddings.
