

English task 2 – India non-fiction writing

Buzz words – every very try and use these in your work

Make your own non-fiction (information) book about India! Think about what you have learnt so far, you might want to look back at your work in your book and the websites and slides you've used. Remember to use headings, sub-headings, fact boxes, labels, pictures and captions. You could use the template below to set out your work, don't forget to do a decorative front cover when you've finished.
