

Monday 29th June

This week we are learning about poetry with a particular focus on poems about school.

Listen to Mrs Theobald read some of her favourite school poems from 'Please Mrs Butler' by Allan Ahlberg.

We would like you to see if you can learn the poem 'Please Mrs Butler'. You could learn the whole poem or just the chorus or one of the verses. You might be able to perform the poem with a sibling or a parent and take it in turns.

You could email us a video of you performing the poem.

Have fun!
