

Thursday 16th July 2020

Today we would like you to write a letter to your next teacher to tell them all about yourself, your family and your interests, so that they can get to know you better.

You can use the template or write on your own letter paper.

You might like to draw some illustrations or draw a border around your letter.

